Students develop valuable skills in the foundational areas of written communication, oral communication, and quantitative reasoning.

ENGAGE:
As they build on their foundational skills and deepen their bases of knowledge, students explore a broad range of course offerings.

DISCOVER:
By choosing additional general interest courses or pursuing a focused plan for certificates, students prepare for lifelong learning.

CONNECT: